The first of a series of meet-lags arranged for in London to protest to the department for cattle, the center of the interests which would be among the chief sufferers by any blow to the cattle import trade. A local magistrate, Mr. Scovel, presided. The burden of the speeches made was that the proposed restrictions would limit the importation of cattle, raise the price of meat, and injure the leather trade and other industries. It would encourage the importation of American leather, which was already too great for the interests of the local manufacturers and employers. Resolutions were adopted that the bill is opposed to free trade principles, is needless and would have pernicious effects upon many industries. Copies of the resolutions were ordered to be sent to Lord Salisbury, Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Chaplin.

THE CAMPAIGN IN LOUISIANA NEW ORLEANS, La., July 30.—The political situation in the State is getting more interesting than ever. The lottery people now claim that there is a break in the ranks of the prominent people present, both Mr. Dillon antis. The farmers are still opposed to the lottery, but as their State President, T. L. Adams of East Feliciana, has announced himself as a candidate for Governor, it is feared that the opposition will suffer. The canvass with the lottery as the leading issue promises to be of an exceedingly lively nature.

What Skin-Grafting Has Done for a Maid-en's Downy Upper Lip. PHILADELPHIA, July 30 .- Dr. J. E. Ege of Reading within three weeks has succeeded in grafting a healthy, luxurious mustache upon the downy upper lip of Miss L. S. Sinclair of New York. The girl is about 22 years old. Dr. Ege has been making different experiments planting the skin of a negro to the arm of a the skinless flesh on the negro's person with a piece of chicken skin. While the chicken skin did not grow feathers it blended with

The doctor longed for new fields, and to his delight Miss Sinclair came to Reading about three weeks ago and declared her willingness one side of the upper lip treated at a time.
When the time for the operation arrived next day Miss Sinclair positively refused to take chloroform. She said she had the nerve to stand it and she did. The entire surface was shaved from the pit of the girl's right arm, and a strip of skin about two and a half inches long and three-quarters of an inch wide was peeled off. Then this strip was placed in a salt water bath and one side of the upper lip was peeled in a similar manner. The edges of the skin surrounding the lip wound were loosened and the piece of cuticle from the arm-pit was placed and the edge of it lapped under. It was then tightly bound and in three days begun to adhere. The hair also began to grow and now it is over half an inch long and has a healthy appearance.

The other side of the lip was treated Monday, but Miss Sinclair decided that it would be better to take chloroform during the operation. Dr. Ege is highly elated over the

owds of Friends Greet the Released Irish Leaders-Short Addresses Made Outlining Their Future Movements

DUBLIN, July 80 .- Messr. Wm. O'Brien and John Dillon, the two Irish members of Parof six months' imprisonment for inciting the tenants of the Smith-Barry estate at Tipperary to resist payment of rents, were released slight traces of having suffered from the rigors of confinement in fail, and in fact seemed to be enjoying the most perfect health. Large crowds of people gathered outside the ance of the two imprisoned Irish leaders. and when the latter did appear. they were waiting in a carriage outside the fail for her husband, whom she welcomed back to liberty in a most affection ate manner amid the cheers of prominent people present, both Mr. Dillon and Mr. O'Brien entered, Mrs. O'Brien's carriage and were driven, followed by repeated cheers and showers of good wishes to the residence of Bishop McCormack where fast. At this repast a number of short ad-dresses were made, but the guests as a rule were too much occupied with personal and nature to enter very deeply into formal phraseology. The released prisoners and their families, according to announcement, will start for this city during the afternoon.

There is great anxiety throughout Ireland two leaders towards the clashing pretensions of McCarthy and Parnell. The opinion prevails in this city that their first efforts, at least, will be directed to a vigorous attempt to close the breach, the existence of which has worked the much mischief to the Irish cause. This afternoon Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien This afternoon Messrs. Dilion and O'Brien arrived in this city and both gentlemen have authorized the statement that they repudiate Parnell's pretensions to the leadership of the Irish party. This prompt and decided action has created a profound sensation. The Mc-Carthyites are jubilant, while even the most enthusiastic and stendfast followers of Mr. Parnell are downcast and faltering.

John Dillon and William O'Brien were arrested under the conspiracy act on the 18th of last September, and arraigned for trial at Tipperary. The arrest was regarded at the time as an attempt on the part of Secretary Balfour to prevent their contemplated tour of the United States in the interest of the Irish cause. On the day their cases were called, Oct. 10, it was discovered that they had secretly sailed from Queenstown for France. They arrived at Cherbourg on the 18th of October and sailed for the United States on the 24th of the same month, arriv-

He Got Money From Arthur Lion and Sent It to Jefferson City, Expressing a Hope That the Bill Would Be Defeated -Mr. Dierkes Pitches Into Gov. John

When the Court of Criminal Correction opened this morning Attorney T. B. Harvey appeared before Judge Claiborne, and asked him to set aside order granting the State an appeal in the pool-room case. Judge Claiborne had been told that Chester H. Krum, attorney of Burgdorfer, would inc object, and granted the application. As a matter of form. Attorney Harvey then moved for a rehearing, asking the Judge to overrule it promptly. This was it promptly. THE CHARGES AGAINST CLAIBORNE. Descending from the bench at noon, with his big, black slouch hat in his hand, Judge Claiborne threw himself into one of the Jury chairs, and discussed with a POST-DISPATCH reporter the reports in circulation about his connection with the pool room issue. "These attacks that are being made upon me do not make me a bit nervous." said he, as he took a cigar from his pocket, and twirled it between his fingers. "I feel just as easy under them as I did under the fire of many runs when I marched up the heights of Get

NOLAND'S REPLY TO THE JUDGE.

Attorney Noland said: "I have nothing to say further than this: When Gov. Johnson went into the prosecution I saw he was greatly in earnest and was confident in his opinion that the act of the Legislature was constituional and that Judge Claiborne would so decide. I knew he was a warm friend of Judge Claiborne, he is also a friend of mine, and I knew he was a warm friend of Judge Claiborne. He is also a friend of mine, and I feit that it was my duty as a friend and as an associate counsel to tell him certain facts. I told him. He went to Judge Claiborne and asked him not to sit in the case, but Claiborne insisted that he could try the case impartially. Gov. Johnson said he did not believe Claiborne or any other man under the circumstances could be impartial, and that he would not argue the matter before him, but that as he did not wish to injure Judge Claiborne he would withhold his reasons for not appearing.

THE THREAT OF IMPEACHMENT.

Mr. Noland was then told what the Judge had said about the letter he had written. "Does the letter contain anything more damaging to the Judge than he has admitted?" was asked.

"No, that is the gist of it. But Claiborne wrote me more than one letter while I was in Jefferson City, all to that same purport."

"Is this all the material upon which the threats of impeachment that have been made are based?"

"Yes," said Mr. Noland. "I have turned over the letters to other persons, to be used as they see fit, and they are no longer in my possession or under my control."

His wife heard of his departure and called on his brother. After shedding many tears and long entreaty Marshall Meredith consented to allow her the company of the children for one day. She took a train for the West that night and since then nothing has been heard of her or the children. About one week ago Mr. Meredith heard his wife had been seen in St. Louis and he hastened here in the hope of locating her. Failing to find her he at once appealed to the police. The children are aged 16, 18 and 11 years respectively, the oldest being a boy. Mrs. Meredith is described by her husband as being 32 years of age, 5 feet tall, weighs 100 pounds, has a light complexion, light hair and blue eyes. Chief Harrigan promised Mr. Meredith assistance in finding the children if they are in the city.

Last fall the indications that the party bosses had traded the Four Courts end of the Democratic ticket to a "combine" of lottery ticket venders and Pool Alley nblers were so strong that the Post DISPATCH declined to support it, while predicting that the Democratic tidal wave

"JOURNALISTIC ENTERPRISE."

On Sunday last the SUNDAY POST-DIS-PATCH announced that Senator QUAY had determined to resign the Chairmanship of the National Republican Committee and to follow this in December with the resignation of his seat in the United States Senate. This important piece of news, which was not printed in any other local newspaper, was given on the authority of mirably maintaining its reputation as a Magistrate South, one of the Senator's closest friends.

On Monday the Post-Disparch published the following paragraph:

It was an easy matter to call for the resignation of QUAY in the editorial columns, but it was a matter of journalistic enterprise to make the first announcement of his intention to resign in the news columns, as the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH did yesterday.

He has been most active in ferreting out and securing the punishment of employes on his boats who tried to smuggle goods into this country. It was through his own desire to be strictly honest that it was discovered that the City of Washington was running under false colors. He desired to bid for the contract for carrying the United States mails between this port, Mexico and Cuba, and he asked the Custom-house authorities to measure the vessel, so that the official tonnage could be sent to the Postmaster-General. The measurement disclosed the fact that the ship had a capacity of ninety tons more than her registered amount. This has been the case for nearly two years, and the fact puts the vessel in the place of a ship without a country. It furthermore technically makes her subject to a duty of 50 cents a ton, each time she entered this port, because she was not registered as an American ship under the new measurements. The reason for this was that in 1889 the ship was put on the dry docks and entirely overhauled. New boilers and machinery were put in and some of the woodwork of the cabins was taken away. This made the difference in the tonnage. The machinery and boilers were inspected by the proper authoriabove anything that would suggest trickery

PERSECUTED RUSSIAN JEWS.

Harrowing Pictures of the Atrocit Practiced in Russia.

Boston, July 30 .- The steamer No yesterday brought 159 immigrants, of whom about thirty were detained on board by the ivestigation of their cases before letting them land. The detained immigrants con sist of three families of Russian Jews and the accounts given by the fathers of two of them are harrowing pictures of atrocities practiced by Russia against the Hebrews. Lazure Mandelzweig, who with his wife and two children, was sent to Boston by the and two children, was sent to Boston by the Board of Guardians in Hamburg, states that he lived in the town Dom-Bin, on the Russian border, where he owned a house and farm and made boots and shoes. He says that any Russian Christian, wishing to possess himself of the property of a Jewish neighbor, can obtain it by paying about one-tenth of its value to the Mayor or Government representative, who will thereupon give him an authority to expel the ment representative, who will thereupon give him an authority to expel the Jewish owner and install himself as proprietor. There is, however, a decree at present in force driving the Jews from the border of Russia into other provinces. Mandelzweig feil under the ban of both these laws, and was compelled to leave his town after only two days' notice with only what little ready money he had and the few articles of bedding, etc., that he was able to carry. He found his way to Hamburg and thence to Liverpool and Boston, but probably will be compelled to go back. His wife is a very delicate woman and the return voyage may be a very serious matter for her.

Another of the detained families is that of Moses Katzin, a ladies' hair dresser and wig maker. He had with him his wife, his aged mother and five children. He came from Riga, and was given three days to leave his home and all his belongings, which fell into the hands of some envious neighbors. thetic position, apparently. He wants to employ and encourage American labor in his new tin-plate American labor in his new tin-plate enterprise, but cannot find any American labor in that field to employ and encourage. Consequently, unless all signs fail, Mr. Niedringhaus will have to import skilled work men from Wales, despite his strong desire to aid the American workman. He has the assurance of Supt. Owen of the Treasury Department that he can do this without violating that he can do this without violating. pariment that he can do this without violating the foreign contract labor law. And so the ex-Congressman is preparing to man his tin-plate works, when they start up, with Welsh workmen. But in the meantime a vigorous protest is going up from American labor organizations, and the importation of the Welshmen promises to be attended with some stirring features.

Telegraphic news from Pittsburg, Pa., pub-shed this morning, state that the officials of lished this morning, state that the officials of the Amalgamated Association have written the matter up and are looking into it very closely and thoroughly. Vice-President Sheehan of the First District is reported as stating that Mr. Niedringhaus prefers the foreign workmen because by their employment he can materially reduce the cost of production. Mr. Sheehan says that the price paid for tinning in Europe is 6 cents a box, while in this country it is 12 cents per box. If Mr. Niedringhaus could bring men here for from 5 to 10 per cents below the American scale he would effect a large saving. It would not pay the Welsh workmen to leave their homes and come to this country for less then 100 per cent advance in wages, to pay for the cost of coming here and the increased cost of living, but it was evident that Mr. Niedringhaus preferred employing them to encouraging plate works. Mr. Niedringhaus, it is said, gave Reese to understand that he would surely be employed but since that time. Reese has heard nothing whatever from the tin plate magnate. Reese thinks the reason of the silence is the fact that he was an American citizen, and stated to Vice-President Sheehan that if Mr. Niedringhaus really wanted to employ American skilled tin-plate workers he could pick up twenty tin-plate workers in Wood's run within twenty-four hours. The Amalgamated Association consequently charged that the Niedringhaus factory was

MR. NIEDRINGHAUS SEEN.

Mr. Niedringhaus was seen relative to these charges by a Post-Dispatch reporter this morning. The ex-statesman and father of the infant tin-plate industry met the charges in his usual frank and impulsive manner.

"Me discriminating against American workmen?" he said, after reading the Pittsburg advices. "Now, I'il tell you what it is, I'm doing just the opposite. I'm trying to find American workmen for my tin-plate works, and if you'il tell me where they are to be found, I'il be much obliged to you. So far as I have been able to learn, there are none in this country. There is no reason why none in this country. There is no reason why there should be, because, with the exception of an attempt some years ago, there have been no tin-plate works in this country, con-sequently no demand for skilled labor in that line. You can't go out and pick up every tinner who thinks he is qualified to work in such a factory, because there is a vast difference between the skilled labor that makes the tin plate and the ordinary tinner who makes articles out of it. "Discriminating against American labor?

I'll answer that charge by a direct offer through the Post-Disparce. You can make the following offer as coming direct from me. If there are any tin-plate rollers anywhere will guarantee to pay them just double the wages they are receiving anywhere else, no matter where, or double the wages they ever did receive for that work, either in this coun did receive for that work, either in this country or Europe. That offer ought to settle this question, ought in ti? They state that the duty is 70 per cent. Well, I'll just pay the workmen 100 per cent more than they have ever obtained, so that they will therefore not only get the full benefit conferred by the duty, but a little more. Oughtn't that to show that I am willing to encourage American labor? But there's none to encourage in the manufacture of tinplate, and that's just the trouble."

"Have you made efforts to find skilled workmen in this country, Mr. Niedringpondence with people all over the country, but without any success."

"What seemed to be the trouble?"

"Simply that the labor wasn't skilled. If we wanted only ordinary tinners, we wouldn't have to go outside of St. Louis to get them. But we want men who know how to make the tin plate."

DON'T REMEMBER REES.
"How about the charges of Mr. John D. last night by a gang of toughs hired, it is said, for that purpose. The lights were turned off, and a panic caused by the cry of fire being raised. The audience was composed largely of ladies, but fortunately no one was hurt. A reward will be offered for the arrest of the perpetrators of the outrage. The trouble arose through enmity to Sam Jones, caused by his work two months ago in closing gambling houses and enforcing the Sunday law.

CARTHAGE'S NEW COURT-HOUSE. CARTHAGE, Mo., July 30 .- The Central Na-

ary to-day $50,000, being scured therefor by the $50,000 5-20 bonds voted by the city, to be used in building a Courthouse on the public square in Carthage. The County Court yesterday made an order of levy to raise the $70,000 voted by the county for Court-house purposes, and the same has been extended on the tax book for this year. This action of the court has surprised the opposition at Webb City, who tried to secure an order from the Circuit Court Judge restraining the court from making the levy. It is believed that now all will go smoothly. Plans and specifications are be-

Use Union Pacific Tracks.

OMAHA, Neb., July 80 .- The Union Pacific this morning granted the Rock Island and Milwaukee the use of a bridge track until the new rules and schedule now being prepared are completed. The Milwaukee at once took advantage of the privilege and ran its first train into Omaha since last January. The Rock Island will begin running trains across the bridge to-night.

Sides With the Alton.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 10 .- A communication day from a shipper in Kansas City, in which he informed them that he was with the road in its present fight with its competitors. He inclosed way bills to show that some of his shipments that had been sent over other roads had been routed contrary to his explicit instructions, but he had issued positive orders to his forwarders in the East hereafter to send all his freight over the Alton, all things being sensal.

courred in the First District Police Court this morning in which Detective Ziegier and James Collins, a bartender, took the leading roles, The fight was indirectly traceable to the arrest of James Cronin, a saloon-keeper and member of the House of Delegates, and Albert Loeffier, a newsdealer on Market street. The fight between Cronin and Loeffier was directly due to a dog fight which occurred in front of Cronin's saloon, on Market, near Tenth street, about 11 o'clock last night. The dogs in settling an old grudge between themselves thus offered an excuse for their James Cronin is a member of the House from the First Ward, and runs a saloon near the City Hall. He owns a dog named "Frank," so called on account of his open face. Frank carries his head high, and as his owner claims "can lick anything in the block." Loeffer keeps a news-stand next door and also owns a dog with a reputation as a fighter. The dogs met in front of Cronin's saloon last night front of Cronin's saloon last night and mingled with each other. Cronin rushed out to separate them, but failed to do so, and Loeffler, seeing his dog was getting worsted, ran out with a revolver to kill the dog. Frank. Cronin interfered and told Loeffler that if he shot the dog he would be to the Loeffler made. get shot. Loeffer made a "pass" at Croni and in another second was sprawling of the sidewalk. With commendable the sidewalk. With commendable spunk he arose and "went for" 'Cronin again and fared even worse than before. The dogs in the meantime were tearing each other's hides to tatters. The police arrived, stopped both fights and took the men to the Four Courts. There Cronin gave bond for himself, and Loeffer was bailed out by the professional bondsman. Haefner, They placed

Row IT STARTED.

Cronin was on hand with his attorney, Ben Clark, but Loemer, who was represented by Jeff Storts, failed to appear. Cronin was accompanied by his bartender, Jim Collins, who was to testify as a witness. Collins is out on bail awaiting trial for robbery, having been arrested at the Union Depot about a month ago with the celebrated Matt Kelly on a charge of stealing a purse from a Kirkwood into the Police Courts every morning and glance over the "mugs" in the cooler and in the audience to see if they recognize anyone who is "wanted." Zeigler saw Collins and Collins saw Zeigler. Both looked surly and curled their lips.

The Boards of Trade of New York State

NEW YORK, July 30 .- The Board of Trade and Transportation of this city is pushing a ed to band together in a State Board of commerce and similar business associations in the same manner as has been successfully carried out in Maine, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and California. The projected organization will bear the same relation to the State that the National Board of Trade does to the entire country. The 187 associations of the State have an aggregate membership of over 35,000 merchants, bankers and manufacturers and the proposed amalgamation will harmonize diverse interests and represent the immense invested business capital of the State.

Took Lodge Funds.

Otto Gompert has been Protector of Missouri Lodge, K. and L. of H., for three years.
During all this time his wife, Mary, has held the position of Treasurer under him. There had never been any cause to suspect the honesty of either of them, but on the 18th of July last the Finance Committee, in order to make out its annual report to the Grand Lodge, went over their accounts and found $440 unaccounted for. Another assessment of $90 in course of collection would swell the amount further. Chairman Hugh Farfaro called on Gompert for an explanation, but was chased from the house with a butcher knife. Gompert and his wife both falled to show up at the last meeting of the lodge.
Search was then made for him at his residence, Eighth street and Chouteau avenue, and it was found he had fled the city, leaving his wife and five children in destitute circumstances. Gompert took with him the $440 on deposit in the Lafayette Bank, the $90 assessment as well as $200 he had raised by mortgaging his household furniture. There is no clue to his whereubouts. The lodge, aithough it might do so, will not prosecute the unfortunate wife.

MR. VON DER AHE ON THE DEAL.

When Fresident Von der Ahe was shown the above telegram this morning he replied:

"It is simply another National League lie. They circulate so many of them that I am tired denying them. They are doing everything in their power to give us trouble and annoyance, and to make us appear weak in the eyes of the people, but it will avail them nothing. If President Gillette of the Milwankee Club has received an offer from the American Association why does he not show the telegram and show who sent it. Nobody is authorized to offer any Western League Club an American Association reaches and for that reason President.

THE MATCH RACES.

It has been decided to run the great match race between Tenny and Longstreet at Morris Park on next Saturday, the rain having rentered the track too heavy for it yesterday, the time originally set. The match is for $5,000 a side, and a purse of $2,500 to be added by the Association. The distance is a mile and a quarter. While Tenny is a good much horse. Longstreet cannot run except on a dry track. As was stated in yesterday's paper the match race between Kingston and Tulla Blackburn which was to have been run yesterday at the Brighton Beach track, has been postponed until Monday on account of the condition of the condition of the track vestered.

Many of the trotting associations have made the serious mistake of closing their entries too early. Entries for a trotting meeting should be held open as long as possible, so that in case any horse in the meantime makes a new record he will have to enter his proper class instead of being eligible to start in a slower class and have the stake at his mercy. Not only does it destroy interest in a race for one horse to have it all his own way, but it frightens out other intended starters.
